President John's Report

As there was no meeting this week in lieu of the Bendigo Cup this will be a brief report.

On Wednesday Leon, Alison, Mick, Gary and myself attended a meeting of the Rotary Club of Castlemaine. The primary purpose of the visit was to renew the relationships we established during the Cobar Drought Relief. It is interesting to listen to their fundraising ideas – I believe we can learn from their experience, especially with respect to the truck show.

Car parking for the show was a 'non event' – a lot of free parking available and the inclement weather led to my decision to cancel. We could have spent six hours there for very little return.

A reminder of the working bee at the Mechanics on Saturday morning for a 9:00 am start. The weather forecast is not promising but there are a number of tasks that we can undertake.

Grange Raffle tickets are selling steadily and I would like members to distribute the brochure with the raffletix information across personal and professional networks – it would be wonderful to sell all the tickets.

On the subject of raffles we need to put the Christmas stocking together in the very near future and I know that Leon McGlashan would like any gifts or donations at your earliest convenience.

Our speaker next week is Kaye Graves from BCHS. Kaye manages the refugee program for BCHS across Bendigo and I am sure we can learn a great deal about the situation in and around Bendigo.
