About Women in Rotary ...

The United States Supreme Court upheld the California court indicating that Rotary clubs do have a "business purpose" and are in some ways public-type organizations. This action in 1987 allowed women to become Rotarians in any jurisdiction having similar "public accommodation" statutes.

About a Very Certain Man in Rotary

Paul Harris, was raised by his New England grandparents. In 1896, he went to Chicago to practice law. One evening, in the early 1900's, Paul went with a professional friend to his suburban home. After dinner, as they strolled through the neighborhood, Paul's friend introduced him to tradesmen in their stores. This reminded Paul of his grandparent's home in New England. He had a thought:

“Why not have a fellowship composed of businessmen from different occupations, without restrictions of politics or religion?”

Today there are over 1,200,000 Rotarians around the world!
