13.) Historical Bible Replicas

What a special offering we have here! Straight from her travels to Washington D.C., Karen has secured facsimile editions of two very famous Bibles. The first is the "Jefferson Bible" – which Thomas Jefferson assembled by cutting out excerpts from the four Gospels, and rearranged them in chronological order to make an edited story of Jesus' life, parables, and teachings. The second is the "Lincoln Inaugural Bible" originally given to Abraham Lincoln by William Thomas Carroll (then clerk of the Supreme Court) to use at his first inauguration on March 4, 1861. That Bible has subsequently been used by Presidents for many years, including Barack Obama on January 20, 2009 and January 21, 2013, and Donald Trump on January 20, 2017. What a nice addition this will make to your collection!

Karen Westerbeck
