5. All Aboard the Dinner Train

For the love of trains or for the love of a unique evening, let the Cincinnati Dinner Train help create that special memory for your group of four. The Cincinnati Dinner Train operates on Saturdays from March – December, taking you on a 25 mile trip in and around Cincinnati. Your three hour excursion will take you downtown Cincinnati to the Riverfront, to the outskirts of town and ending back at Oakley. During this outing you and your guests will be served a delicious chef-prepared, four-course meal while riding in style on one of the restored 1947 New York Central dining car or 1946 Milwaukee Road table car or a 1952 Silver Sword. This all inclusive package even takes care of the gratuity, so your evening is complete. What a great way to see Cincinnati!

6. Set Them Up Bartender!

What a great addition this handcrafted bourbon barrel will be for your “Man Cave or She Shed.” Up for bid is this high quality bourbon barrel that will make you the envy of all! It’s the perfect space to store all of your favorite adult beverages. Included are two bottles of bourbon. One is the 50th anniversary Woodford Reserve bottle commemorating Secretariat’s winning the Triple Crown and the other is a bottle of Elijah Craig (believed to have aged in the actual barrel) along with one of the finest handcrafted (bootlegged) rye whiskeys (from a local family recipe) that I have ever had the privilege of enjoying. A few other selected items will be added as well. Bid high and enjoy!!

John Schwartz

7. A Year of WINNERS!

10. 10. Beer Caverns and You are Booked at the Precinct!

Start a thrilling journey with American Legacy Tours as we unveil the secrets of Cincinnati’s historic beer caverns on our exclusive Hidden Caverns Tour. The adventure for four begins from one of the last standing structures of the original Christian Moerlein Brewery complex. You will visit the oldest continuously operating public market in the state of Ohio before delving deep into the underground world, where you’ll explore a remarkable set of beer caverns - the enigmatic Linck brewery tunnels. The tour includes a beer at the Northern Row Brewery Taproom. After the tour, you can head over to Cincinnati’s Original Upscale Steakhouse – The Precinct by Jeff Ruby. Opening in 1981 in the old Cincinnati Police Patrol House No. 6, it is now the longest continuously running fine dining restaurant in the city. Lastly, this package includes a hotel gift card for an overnight stay. Beer caves, a great dinner and an overnight stay...a great weekend package!
