Time: 5:30 - dark (7:00ish) Please be punctual so we can make the most of the remaining daylight. Park next to 743 across from the Rails to Trails shop or at Old Trolley Line Park.

Volunteers should wear boots and clothes they don't mind getting muddy.

Volunteers should bring a water bottle, bug spray, gloves, mallets, and shovels if they have them. We will have some to gloves, mallets and shovels to share too.

We will still hold the event if it is raining, but flooding, downpours, and/or thunderstorms will cause us to cancel or postpone.

Here are ten things every member can do to create a positive experience:

Apply The Four-Way Test and Code of Conduct in your lives and in your club proceedings.

1. Before judging or expressing a point of view, sending an email, taking any action, find out the Facts of a situation. After doing that, determine if an action is fair to all, will build goodwill and better friendships, and will be beneficial to all concerned. If not, don't act.
2. Become an advocate for policies and practices that are based on truth, fairness, inclusivity, and diversity.
3. Always greet members with warmth and interest.
4. Treat members with the respect you would like to get.
5. Take the time to listen and evaluate diverse opinions and defend the right of members to express a view different from yours.
6. If you have a concern with another member, speak to them personally. Don't send a complaining email.
7. Before you send an email or communicate with others, make sure the assertions you are making are based on fact. Always use an appropriate tone.
Ask yourself, is it fair and will it build goodwill and better friendship?
8. Get involved and spread the news about Rotary's good work.
9. If someone expresses a concern about Rotary, listen and see what you can do to correct the situation.
10. None of us are perfect. We all can display poor judgment at times. If you find you've made a mistake or offended someone, apologize as soon as possible. Not only will your action be good for Rotary, but you will gain respect for doing so.
