Juneteenth: The final day of slavery for all slaves in the Confederate South.

The Emancipation Proclamation, effective Jan 1, 1863, said "all persons held as slaves within any State... in rebellion against the United States shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free."

Texas, however, was the last state to acknowledge the order of the Emancipation Proclamation. It wasn't until June 19, 1865, even after the Confederacy had surrendered 2 months earlier, that Major Gen. Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston, TX and informed the reluctant slave owners that President Lincoln had freed the slaves in seceded states 2 1/2 years earlier and they were to comply with the order.

We look forward to seeing you as we kick-off the beginning of the 2020-2021 Rotary year! Let's celebrate!

The 2019 – 2020 Rotary Year is coming to an end.
 It has been a year of amazing "ups," disheartening "downs," and unprecedented "unknowns."
 Our ever-vigilant and dedicated leadership, with President Bill at the helm, has steadied our ship and kept us on course as we weathered the tumultuous tempests of 2020.
 Thank you Pres Bill and the Board for your Service Above Self this year.
