ROTARY INTERNATIONAL NEWS

One of the best things that I've done in Rotary was to go to Rotary International Conventions, Dennis Zubler
My first convention was 2005, Rotary's 100th anniversary. The convention was held in Chicago, the birthplace of Rotary. When it was announced, I knew I had to go. WOW! What an experience. People from all over the world in Chicago. Everywhere you walked, every restaurant, there were people wearing Rotary logos. And everyone you passed said hi. Since that first convention I have used Rotary Conventions as an excuse to travel outside the country. My favorite was Lisbon Portugal, then Sydney Australia. We went to Bangkok Thailand and the first food we saw when we arrived in the airport was Auntie Anne's Soft Pretzels. In 2019 we went to Hamburg Germany. Jim and Carol Nelson were there with 20,000 other Rotarians. The only way we got to see Jim and Carol was to email and schedule to meet for dinner after the closing ceremonies.

Plan to get a glimpse of a Rotary International Convention
