Welcome and thank you for supporting the Yellow Breeches Rotary Club's third tasting event, "A Taste of Mechanicsburg." Your support, as an Attendee, Sponsor, or Vendor, is invaluable. With the funds raised at this event, our club will be able to continue to serve and support our local community partners, such as the Joseph T. Simpson Public Library, the New Hope Food Pantry, and Meals on Wheels. We will also be able to expand our funding and support to our global partners in El Salvador, where they continually inspire us with the work that they are doing to develop and strengthen their communities.

We are deeply appreciative of the support and enthusiasm that the Simpson Library has shown for A Taste of Mechanicsburg. Our public library is a pillar in this community. All of the staff and volunteers that serve at the library demonstrate, on a daily basis, the Rotarian's motto of "Service Above Self." Thank you for the service that you provide to all of us in our community!

Thank you to our food and beverage vendors for your willingness to give your time, energy, and most importantly, food, drink, and talent for this event. It has been a pleasure to work with all of you and we thank you for your generosity in supporting A Taste of Mechanicsburg. We hope to welcome you back for future tasting events and fundraisers.

The Yellow Breeches Rotary Club has been humbly serving our local, national, and global community for the past 85 years. We are a team of individuals, from all professions, dedicated to making a difference in the world around us. If you are an individual that sees the challenges that your fellow community members face (both locally, nationally, and internationally) and want to do something about it, come join us every first and third Wednesday morning at Brothers Diner from 7:15 to 8:30 AM. We would love to have you there!

Thank you again for joining us this evening and for your support for the Simpson Library and the Yellow Breeches Rotary Club! Feel free to leave comments on our Facebook page.

It was wonderful spending this afternoon with you all!

Helpful Hints for Today's Event

- The restaurants and vendors are located on the main and second floor of the Simpson Public Library (we are not using the lower level this afternoon). Visit each one and check out their offerings.
- Refer to the separate "map" sheet (also, the back of this booklet) which lists and shows the location of all the restaurants, vendors, and featured locations.
- When you visit a sponsor, please thank them for supporting this event and the community. This will help to make the next "Taste" bigger and better.
- Please vote for your favorite item by using the voting slips located at the Best of ... Station near the entrance. Each slip has the names of the vendors which are eligible for a specific category. Harriet “Hattie” Willis is the baker and owner of Hattie’s Bread Box Bakery. A native of New Orleans, Hattie has called Central Pennsylvania home for decades. Hattie’s Bread Box Bakery and the ‘Bread Box’ pick up station is located in the charming borough of Mechanicsburg, nestled at the base of the Blue Mountains.

It is said that “bread is the staff of life”. Sourdough fermentation is a process of making bread the way our ancestors did many years ago. Nature’s gifts are used to produce flavorful, healthy bread with no commercial yeast or dough conditioners, which are often found in the commercial breads of today.

Where the Locals Eat

WE COOK FOR THE LOVE OF FOOD.

Metro Diner may not be the type of place where you'd expect contemporary culinary techniques, a commitment to creating dishes from scratch, an award-winning presentation, unique recipes and imaginative twists on old classics, but it is. It's that type of place because we cook with heart. We cook for the love of food.

Our story starts in 1992 in Jacksonville, Florida, when a historic cafe near San Marco Square was renamed Metro Diner. Guests have been continuously served at this location since 1938. We continue that tradition in our diners today by serving another generation of happy guests at their favorite place.
