President’s Message

Fall is officially upon us, although the temperature gauge refuses to comply! I always look forward to autumn as the sights, smells, and sounds evoke feelings of warmth and elicit memories of time spent with family and friends around bonfires. The kids have settled into school and we all go about our lives, harvesting the bounty of the summer, watching the glorious changing of the leaves, and preparing for the cooler months ahead. May we all find ourselves pausing to breathe in the smells, to savor the smoke on the breeze, to salivate over the cider, and to relish the company of those around us.

Amy Bockis ~
