2. Expand our Reach: Engage, Strengthen, Grow Watch Membership Membership Part 1.mp4 and Membership Membership Part 2.mp4 as a club and discuss at a Club Assembly or similar gathering. NB These presentations might be challenging for some. The purpose is to bring members on the journey and gain shared understandings about using the MAP and membership ideas. Set a goal in My Rotary to achieve a minimum net gain of 2 new members, aiming for at least one under the age of 40 years old. The Club President or Secretary should input the goal in Rotary Club Central on My Rotary and ensure that new members' date of birth is included in their profile.	Documentation: Record your actions in the MAP Record and Audit Sheet. REVIEW ACTIONS Two new members under 40 years old (Sophie Enders and Ireland Letson) Membership as at 01.07.2025: 30 New members since 01.07.2025: 13 Members resigned: 0 Total members at 28.02.2026: 43 Rotary Club Central membership goal is set at 35, by 30.06.26 All members date of birth recorded in ClubRunner.	100	100
3. Increase our Ability to Adapt: Strengthen and Grow Evaluate your Public Image presence using the Social Media audit tool provided. Strengthen your presence on one Social Media platform so that it regularly promotes the positive actions of your club in an appealing and outward facing way	Documentation: Complete the Social Media Audit in the MAP Record and Audit Sheet supplied and highlight the area to strengthen. See MAP Record and Audit Sheet	50	50
6. Enhance Participant Engagement: Engage and Grow Help your club understand what younger members are looking for by watching The Missing Millennials together at https://vimeo.com/1021514144, then discuss the insights as a group. Follow this by evaluating your club's current balance between fundraising and service using the Balance form provided. Hold a Club Assembly to explore what changes could make your club more appealing to younger people—and more engaging for current members.	Documentation: Complete the Balance evaluation in the MAP Record and Audit Sheet. Reviewed Missing Millennials as a Club 2025.11.27 MAP Record and Audit Sheet, section 6. 'Balance Evaluation: Getting the Balance Right: Service projects and Fundraising' has been updated. Our club is very focused on recruiting younger members and making our club appealing to those prospects.	50	50
7. Enhance Participant Engagement: Strengthen Have your Board watch Be a Change Enthusiast at https://vimeo.com/1022455780 to develop practical skills and a positive mindset for leading change. This is to assist in developing practical skills and a curious mindset for leading change. Trust and accountability through goal-setting matters to members. Input and track at least 13 meaningful Club goals in Rotary Club Central, ensuring they align with each of Rotary's four priorities.	Documentation: Club President or Secretary to work with the board and enter goals in Rotary Club Central on My Rotary.
