FREMONT – Wynn Schell gave a presentation at the Nov. 24 Rotary Club of Fremont meeting on the newly-established Domestic Violence Victims Services. The services are funded through a United Way grant and are available at the Liberty Center of Sandusky County through Schell, who is the program advocate.

The program provides comprehensive services to victims of domestic violence, including crisis intervention, safety planning, education, emergency shelter, help with the legal process, referrals and follow-up care.

Emergency services can be accessed by calling the Domestic Violence Hot Line at -799-SAFE (7233). Schell can be contacted at 419-332-8777, ext. 205.
