

Nominations Sought for 2015 Austin Rotary Awards

+Community Service +Educator of the Year +Public Service in Government

Each year Austin Rotary Club honors local individuals who make exceptional contributions to the community. This year, Austin Rotary Club is giving 3 separate awards - “Community Service”, “Educator of the Year”, and “Public Service in Government”. Each person honored will receive an engraved plaque at a ceremony held during the Presidents Rotary luncheon meeting in June at noon at the Holiday Inn. A $200 check will be donated in their name to the local charitable cause of their choice.

-Those eligible for the “Educator Award” are teachers, administrators, counselors or other professionals currently employed by a private or public school in Mower County, pre-school through college.

-Those eligible for the “Government Award” include anyone currently employed by a local, state or federal government office located in Mower County.

-Those eligible for the “Community Service” award maybe working in a paid or volunteer position and epitomize the motto “Service Above Self”

Criteria for evaluating the nominees are:

Completeness of the application

Demonstration of positive leadership in the community (can be the work community)
