An Important Message to all our Club Members
from Treasurer Jenie

Our Club relies on you, our Members, to pay your monthly statement account balance (in full) to make sure that our Club's monthly outgoings are covered.

Speaker

Sandra Haigh addressed us about her role as the regional Community Archivist for the Western Bay Council. She arrived in Katikati, as a trained librarian, in 2011 and later rose to become team leader. When the new library was completed in 2018 she opted to become the Community Archivist and undertook diploma level training for the role. The key principles of archiving are to tell the story behind the material being preserved (provenance) and to preserve the integrity (the whole extent) of the collection. A good example of a national level archive is Papers Past. For our region go here.

Five MinuteTalk from Jerry Payne

Jerry spoke about the young generation of today and the dismay of many of us feel to hear reports of the apparent decline in previously generally accepted norms of (family) values, standards and lifestyles.

Examples of this decline that he cited included:

- The incidence of “ram raids” to businesses
- Increasing youth (violent) crime rates
- 11% of the younger work force not in employment
- School attendance commonly falling to around 40% (with the inevitable effects on literacy)

Funds raised at last meeting:

Raffle - $71.00 (for Foodbank & Community Breakfast)
Fines - $24.00 (Presidents Sunshine Fund)
Rotary Foundation - $24.00

Parting Thought from Jerry Payne

It always seems impossible Until it is done.
