For your convenience, don't forget you can also now register electronically and pay registration fees online!!

The Yea Rotary Art Show Committee would like to thank Artists for their ongoing support of our Art Show which continues to grow and develop within the area and further afield. The Art Show offers the Rotary Club of Yea an important fundraising opportunity which enables our Club to provide aid to local, national and international community projects.

We look forward to more fantastic artwork again this year.

Exhibitors holding their entry receipt will be admitted free during opening hours on any day during the Art Show.
