

Greeter Spotlight: Goldie Weaver

Goldie Weaver is a great woman and a fine Rotarian.

...of the things we think, say and do

Is it the truth?
Is it fair to all concerned?
Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Abigail's main role is to speak in churches throughout Virginia to raise awareness about the need for foster parents and to encourage loving families to open their homes to children in need. Abigail is passionate about raising awareness in the community and advocating for policies that improve the child welfare system. She especially enjoys seeing the positive impact that a loving foster family can have on a child in care. Abigail holds a Bachelor's in Christian Education and Biblical Literature from Taylor University. She worked as a youth minister for six years before returning to school to obtain a Master of Social Work from VCU with a concentration in Social Work Administration Planning and Policy Practice. Prior to working at HopeTree, Abigail was a registered lobbyist within the Commonwealth of Virginia and was active in the General Assembly of Virginia advocating for children and families. Abigail is also a graduate of the Richmond Christian Leadership Initiative (RCLI). In addition to her role at HopeTree, Abigail currently serves as the VP of the Virginia Association of Licensed Child Placing Agencies. She also serves as the Virginia Coalition of Private Providers Associations (VCOPPA) representative on Virginia's Child Welfare Advisory Committee, a statewide committee which convenes for the purpose of improving the child welfare system.
