Report of Meeting 3351 held at the Kensington Hotel

Sergeant Peter Hewitt called the meeting to order and Keith Payne gave the Invocation and Toast.

Peter introduced President Wendy.

Wendy welcomed members and guests to all things French, especially visitor Glenda Headley.

All Things French

Many folks dressed in red, white and blue, or donned a beret. French background music.

Trivia Quiz

Folks formed teams of 2 or 3 and said they enjoyed the competition.

One team even brought their own reference guide!
Complete with sustenance.

Each person had a fair amount of knowledge, and gained a little more.
A tie-breaker was called for an eventual winner – the scribe for that team.

However even better was the patisserie offerings thanks to President Wendy Gaborit –

the person with the French heritage and surname!

RCSP Croquet - Tuesday 11th February

If you wish to join us (from 5.30pm at Glenunga Club, Kingsley Avenue, Glenunga) and haven't been able to sign up, please call or email me.

We welcome returnees from previous years, but also newbies (no games' skill required!).

Initial coaching and on-going support will be provided, and it makes for a fun night.

For players and observers:

- Let me know of any dietary requirements
- BYO drinks or bar prices. Pizzas at 7pm
- Please wear closed shoes on the courts
- Cost is $30 cash on the night or $15 for non-players

You are invited to come and join the Coast FM community for a fun afternoon at the

Capri Theatre
Sunday March 2nd

to see the movie

Widow Clicquot

about a woman who overcame prejudice and exclusion to succeed in producing a top French Champagne - Veuve Clicquot.

This session is open to all and is a perfect opportunity to meet some of the Coast FM presenters.

Each ticket purchase includes a drink on arrival. Tickets are $25.

All proceeds will go towards your favourite community radio station, 88.7 Adelaide's Coast FM.

There will be an opportunity to purchase raffle tickets, with some amazing prizes up for grabs.

There will also be a wine wall full of flavour that you can purchase.

Wine wall selection will be unknown and a hope for the best.

Available for $20 per selection.

The Capri Theatre will have a selection of snacks and treats available as well.

Please arrive from 2:30pm for a 3:30pm movie start

Book tickets through Tiff, at Coast FM 8371 5887
