Report of Meeting 3179 held on Tuesday 1st June at the Glenunga Croquet Club
'Come and Try Golf Croquet'

The winter weather was kind for the croquet beginners and with some patient instructions from the Glenunga Club members, the participants had fun, firstly coming to terms with the rules of golf croquet, then how to hit the ball, but more importantly the strategy of the game.

This strategy is likened to that for snooker and billiards, whereby one often has to hit the opponent's ball out of range before trying to get one's own ball through the hoop. A bit embarrassing though when one's shot completely misses the target!

Delicious pizzas were served and a few drinks made us all forget about our mistakes and some participants seemed to warm to the idea that it might be a good pastime for them.

Past President Brian Kretschmer welcomed all to what was an official Rotary meeting and thanked everyone involved in organising such an enjoyable fellowship occasion.

Apologies

Bill Winslow, Rod Carey, Bruce Ballantyne, George Dimitriadis, Peter Hewitt, Arthur Manser, John Seeliger, Keith Shaw, Wendy Gaborit.

Run time - 53 minutes

Run time - 44 minutes

An earlier version of Part 1 was distributed, however a couple of typos were noticed so the latest versions have either P1 or P2 as part of their name.

It is probably best to download to a computer if you want the Original or HD 1080p resolution versions. Other lower resolution versions are more suitable for phones.
