Report of Meeting 3308 Held at The Shed Linde Reserve

President Jim Owler welcomed all especially Guest Speaker Chris Moore and Anne Lloyd. Members were delighted to see PDG Dennis Henschke. Partners present were Trena Kretschmer and Barbie Birkedale. It was also lovely to welcome Patricia Bozin.
President's Announcements: Jim reminded members that next week will be the Club Assembly at the Kensi.

Purrpetuall Pet Services

Angela Williams introduced Guest Speaker Chris Moore. Members were privileged to hear of the wonderful work with animals via Hope Springs Purrpetuall Pet Services.
"Purrpetuall Pet Services provides a suite of services to support pet owners both at home and out and about – we look after people by looking after their precious pets!" from the Website.

Chris gave a very detailed explanation of the options provided through Purrpetuall Pet Services.

These include Doggy Day Care, Rehoming, In-home Care services, Vet transport and Pet Therapy.

Members really enjoyed the company of the four “therapy” dogs that visited.

Other programs on offer include: Companionship, Cuppa, Conversation and Cuddles
Visits to Aged Care Facilities, Retirement Villages and people with disabilities
Grooming support
Pet Taxi
Dog walking and basic training

A Message from PDG Dennis Henschke

Hi Pam,

Please include in the next RCSP Bulletin a note expressing my sincere thanks to members for the encouraging messages received via a 'Get Well' card a while ago when in need of a boost.

I am now at home, pain-free, walking unaided, but not permitted to drive for up to six weeks.

Being weaned off analgesics, a spinal issue emerged which was being masked by hip medication. Periodic treatment for this (steroid/cortisone injections) has commenced and seems to be effective.

Kind regards and best wishes to all at the RCSP.

Cheers,
Dennis

Apology to Akon Baak

I made a mistake when reporting on Akon's achievements last week.

*Akon's success was in Bosnia, not Bulgaria.
I am sorry Akon. Ed.*

News from the Rotary Club of Norwood

Topic – homelessness in the community and partnering with other Clubs for the Club purchase and distribution of shelter bags by outreach services.
2. Wednesday the 17th of April .Majors Simon and Renee Pickens from the Norwood Salvos .
Topic – their engagement with those doing it rough and tough in the local community and how we can help.
3. Wednesday the 15th of May. Kathy and Alison from the Eastern Adelaide Domestic Violence Service.
Topic – how Rotary clubs can support them in dealing with many challenging issues.

Members of your Club are welcome to join us.

Kind regards,

Rob Rushton-Smith
President,
Rotary Club of Norwood Inc.

RCSP Annual Croquet Evening

Prepare for an evening of fun and downright viciousness! This is not for gentlefolk!

Our annual croquet evening is designed to bring out the worst in everyone. Prepare to run hoops, jump other balls, and smash interfering opposition balls into the adjacent tennis courts.

Coaching and a pizza tea provided, but BYO drinks.

Cost $25 at the door (Cash please)

Tuesday March 26th 5.30pm at the Glenunga Croquet Club, Kingsley Avenue, Glenunga.

Please complete attendance form at our Tuesday dinner or contact Chris 0432920964.

No need to dress like this but do wear closed shoes.
