Trinity Gardens Primary School – Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Foundation

Guest Speakers Brenton Conradi, Anne Rogers and Jane Trewartha

How proud the Club was to hear of the progress and implementation of this wonderful program.
The purpose of the Foundation is to “introduce pleasurable food education to children... in order to form positive food habits for life”.

At Trinity Gardens the kitchen garden has been established and the chooks are producing eggs daily.

History: Our Club provided a $1,000 Environment Grant to help get the garden established.
The next year we heard of funds needed for the purpose built kitchen plans.
Rotarian John George via the MGA Whittles Foundation and the Rotary Club of St Peters each made a major donation of funds to see the kitchen completed.

(The Club donated $15,000 – raised from Saturday Shed Sales.)

Specialist Gardening and Cooking Teacher Jane Trewartha explained just how the program works with the help of parent and community volunteers.

The students work in the garden including egg collection one lesson and then make pleasurable fresh nutritious meals in the next.

The Menus have included fried rice, dumplings and savoury pancakes.

Trinity Gardens Parent Volunteer Anne Rogers explained the roles of volunteers.

A School market is held after school monthly and the annual fete also raises funds to help offset the ongoing costs of the program.

An invitation has been extended to Rotary Club members to attend a cooking session to witness the outcome of funds expended.

Trinity Gardens Principal Brenton Conradi showed photos of some of the 800+ students at work in the garden, chook house and kitchen. The program is inclusive catering for various cultures and levels of ability.

Our Club was very fortunate to have received donations of three Stephanie Alexander Kitchen books.

Rotarian David Birkedale was delighted to present the books to Trinity Gardens for their ongoing work. Club members look forward to visiting the School.

A new look for this bulletin

The Rotary Club of St Peters weekly bulletin is distributed widely. It serves two main purposes.

The first is to keep club members informed and updated about club administration, as well as past and future projects and events. It includes information such as the rosters for club meetings and shed workers.

The second purpose is to give reports about guest speakers who address club meetings and also about special club projects such as the annual Music Awards and the Design and Creativity Awards nights.

To make the bulletin easy to distribute electronically there is limited space, so frequently compromises need to be made. Therefore, the club board has decided to trial publishing two unique bulletins.

Between May and November 2024, members only will receive a weekly issue tailored to their needs. During this time, on a monthly basis, all the people on our current distribution list will receive a special edition which will feature club projects and reports on guest speakers.

We will welcome comments from anyone about this trial.

Shed Report – Angela Williams and Paul Holton

St Peters Fair Day

Angela and Paul reported outstanding success on Fair Day last Saturday. With 23 other Rotarians and friends in Loxton an on-site skeleton staff grew and grew.

The Shed Team worked together and sold hundreds of egg and bacon rolls, veggie burgers and sausages. Shed Sales were very busy and the result was most pleasing for the Club in providing service to the Community.

A huge thank you to all - especially those who worked not only their shift but also stayed on and extended time in helping others.
