Phil Smith - Shed Report

Shed trading on Saturday was great. (No Scottish deep pockets and short arms!)

David Heilbronn – (Scottish ancestry revealed...) Theatre Reminder

This Saturday’s meal is 5.45 at the Saracen’s Head Hotel – Arts Theatre Performance 7.30

Brian Kretschmer - Program

To all RC St Peters Club Members

Pam and I are developing the coming new Rotary year Calendar with possible speakers for our club meetings. Could you all please also consider possibilities - maybe a friend or family member, an organisation representative, a work colleague etc.

You do not necessarily need to know a name, just an organization that Pam and I can follow up.

Could you please email either one of us with any suggestions? Thank you.

Photos from our vibrant Scottish evening will be published in our Monthly Newsletter – due out soon.

Here are members and guests dancing to Auld Lang Syne. (Note the tartan!)

Sophie Owler – PHF Paul Harris fellow

Sophie started volunteering at our Shed over a year ago. She started with cleaning and sorting goods and then was trained in coffee dispensing. Sophie uses her initiative and works where needed. Sophie has a delightful, engaging nature and enjoys working with our volunteers, patrons and members.

Recently Sophie (a Secondary student) was successful in gaining part-time employment at a local enterprise. The reference she was given through her work at the Shed was to her credit. Our members were very proud of this presentation from Secretary Wendy. (More tartan!)

We were entertained by Alan Nisbet

Alan Nisbet

Alan is a Scottish trained accordionist – a classically trained singer attending the Adelaide Elder Conservatorium.

He has entertained the Scottish community for over 30 years. Alan won a Scholarship to study voice and choral music from Wesley Kent Town church. He trained as pipe band snare drummer with Australian Army and played in Basel Military Tattoo Switzerland with SA Pipes and Drums (second largest Tattoo in world behind Edinburgh).

He was mentored on accordion by legendary accordionist Tony Lovello (member of Three Sons group and played with Frank Sinatra and Debbie Reynolds).

Alan joined the City of Glasgow Police from school .
He was a Member of the Royal Marines Reserves Glasgow.

This Bulletin reflects just a touch of tartan and the fun and fellowship enjoyed by our Club on Tuesday.

Please look forward to the Monthly Bulletin and the many photos taken to be shared.

Wellbeing Report

Sending best wishes and speedy recovery messages to Rod Carey and Keith Shaw.
