

INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM FOR JAPANESE BUSINESS LEADERS

The Rotary Club of Little Tokyo, Los Angeles, is extending its exclusive corporate membership invitations to Japanese business leaders (“Expats”) living and working in the United States.

We offer chuzai-in the advantage of membership in the prestigious international Rotary Club organization, with opportunities that enhance business and cultural advancement and charity involvement with unique effectiveness.

Insights that help your business

Our meetings and activities will provide insights into American business and culture from fellow Rotary members who have a dual Japanese and American perspective.

- Contacts that create greater understanding among expat, Japanese-American, recent immigrant generation Japanese, and other U.S. communities
- Special Los Angeles experiences: stories to take back to Japan, including activities for spouses and children
- Participation in American-style volunteerism that combines community service and business networking. A field of growing interest in Japan
- Connections that expand your sphere of involvement and facilitate business success

Membership flexibility

Our program includes annual membership waiver when more than one person from your company joins. If you return to Japan, your membership recognition can be transferred. You will receive a Rotary membership wall plaque and pins to take back to Japan to share unforgettable memories.
