The Joy in Community

An interactive workshop and art show with Paul Born

Please join us in the interactive workshop facilitated by Paul Born to celebrate inclusion and to be inspired! We will hear positive stories of inclusion from community members while acknowledging that we can continue the forward momentum through ongoing learning. Paul will share his knowledge around deepening community with us. Students and community members will showcase their art around inclusion and snacks will be served by the Local Community Food Centre. You will leave feeling empowered and inspired to move forward as change makers.

A WORKSHOP TO CELBRATE THE SUCCESSES OF INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

About Paul Born:
Belief in the power of community is at the heart of Paul's life and work.

Paul works with leaders and communities embarking on large scale community change initiatives. He is a coach, consultant, and community conversations facilitator in support of Breakthrough Community Change.
