ROTARY: MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Water and Sanitation month

Next meeting
 12 March 2018
 Trees for Survival

5.30 at Murrays Bay
 School followed by meal and notices at Pupuke Golf Club

Notices.

PE Jennifer thanked the club for their donations of 140 pairs of children's underwear. This contributed to the 3000 pairs donated for Fiji. She also enjoyed South Pacific Pets especially a couple of the speakers.

Lynette reminded us that it is 5.30 at Murrays Bay School this week.

There will be a working Bee at Bush Glen Reserve (Helvetia St, Browns Bay) on Sunday 25 March from 9.30 to 10.30 and Rotarians, family and friends are welcome to bring some muscle and some tools to help out. From about 10.30 there will be an open day at the reserve entrance to show the Council plans, hand out flyers on weed control, talk about pest control, and then take people on a walk along the paths to show what they have done.

Monday 19 March - Partners Night Degustation Dinner at Pupuke Golf Club.

Following on from the success of last month's lovely dinner we have decided to again offer a special multi-course menu for your enjoyment with Rod Fergusson as Guest Speaker. There will be a cash bar operating with a great selection of wines for you to match with these dishes. Cost: $15 Members - $35 Partners

Sunday March 24. Day trip to Rotoroa Island with 360 Discovery Cruises - BBQ Lunch. Please let Murray know if you want to go if you have not already done so.

Paul Cha's mother was so impressed with the Sci/Tec forum and our meeting last week that she made sushi for us.

Quiz night at Rangitoto for the Cambodia trip to build houses. 7 PM $10 each. On this trip the hundredth house will be built by Rangitoto students and Michelle Parkinson. Be part of Sean's team at the quiz..

Alan told us about his shed, tools and making things. He has made a large hula-hoop which takes three people on water and has a tendency to turnover. While in Spain recently he saw a number of wooden puzzles and is currently making a number of them.
