Julie's arrival

Keith's Korner

"Well it has certainly been a baptism of fire. The first meeting - committees, the second meeting – board, the third meeting – forum, and in between the very sad demise of Enid and Inge.

What has lightened matters is the arrival of our French Exchange Student Julie Deauxais. What a delightful young lady she is and from the writer's conversations with her, highly intelligent as well. I am sure she will make the most of her time in New Zealand and will respond well to the New Zealand way of life. Her English is absolutely immaculate and even better than my French with its Parisian accent.

It was good to hear from the various directors as to their plans for the new year and can I apologise for failing to thank them for their presentations as thanks were well due.

Having heard from the directors with their plans for next year I will now assemble my goals for the year and post them on my rotary page. Given my skills that may not be immediate."
 President Keith.

Last meeting.

President Keith started the meeting with a moment's silence in memory of Enid Asquith and Inge Jenkins.

Notices.

DG's visit 7 August -please pay Bob. Members $5 Guests $25.

Club forum. President Keith conducted two straw polls which favoured weekly meetings and continuing with the grace.

PR – continue to promote the club through social media especially on Facebook and increase the public understanding of what Rotary does.

Facebook link –

<https://www.facebook.com/428679097199407/photos/582514721815843/>

Club development – try younger members of Rotary families who know all about Rotary. Put a Rotary sticker on your car. The satellite club at Hobsonville is in need of a new enthusiastic leader. It is hoped to have an information stall at the Browns Bay Markets.

Fellowship – the DG's visit is on 7 August . 'Fellowship is the cement that holds Rotary together'. It is intended to have partners' evenings every six weeks and two joint meetings. Ian Collard is the new bar chief. They are looking at – wine appreciation, Murray McCully speaking , Christmas party, barbecue, degustation menu, quiz night, visit, ethnic night, TGIF, overnight train trip.

International – Vanuatu needs a new local Rotarian to replace Ruffino who has done sterling work. The committee is looking for more local paper coverage particularly with the link to Cambodia. New funding will be needed if we are to have another student from Cambodia in 2018/19. International Youth Exchange – we currently have two overseas- Bonnie and Nick and Julie here in New Zealand.

We have a Romac child arriving for treatment at the end of the month. See Bernie if you can help. We will continue to support Erks, Foundation and try for more Centurions. They also want to apply for a district or global grant.

Community-Steve said Nick is currently in a cabin in the Norwegian woods. Continue with Trees for Survival, Sherwood reading, Christmas giving, Ryla, Interact, Muna, Interschool debate, Science/tech forum and Challenge camp. Fundraising may use 'give a little', Pinehurst barbecue and Rose Theatre play.

Julie introduced herself to the club. She lives on the west coast of France and is very glad to be here having heard of the programme a year ago.

Parting thought – love is the only fire with no insurance.

Email from Don Hall

Hello Carol.

Thank you for sending out the notification of the deaths of Inge and Enid – what a body blow to both Steve and Paul; and to members of East Coast Bays Rotary.

A friend picked up the message from Facebook but it has not yet come to my Facebook page.

Inge was a lively personality of Rotary who will be sorely missed, albeit she has not been active for some time. I did not know Enid quite so well but I always noticed how friendly she was and how well received she was by those around her.

Janet and I won't be able to attend either funeral as we are in St Ives, Cambridgeshire UK at present and are not due home until 2 August.

Please pass our good wishes to the club and tell them we are thinking of them during this difficult time. I'm sure the Club will give every support to both Steve and Paul, be willing to listen to them when they need to talk about their loss and give space to them to follow their own particular grief path knowing they are surrounded by friends who care.

We will be holding Steve, Paul and the club in our prayers during this time.

Every blessing

Janet and Don
