Well we have done it ! Through Level 4 and into Level 3 Now hang tough team and let's make the next step to Level 2. For the past weeks we have all given up our personal freedoms to protect all New Zealanders and our most vulnerable.

We are well aware this is only the first step and this could continue for more weeks/months before we can contemplate meeting back at the golf club. For the meantime Zoom meetings will take place every week as our way of communicating.

Coming back from this everything will not be the same as before. Many businesses will not last, many people have lost their jobs (and many more will in the months to come) some families have lost loved ones. Some of these will be our own working members whose businesses will be suffering. Remember to put work their way if you can. If you are struggling in any way there are people in the club who would be more than willing to help with their skills- just ask!! Remember also those business that have supported our fundraising in the past, now is the time to support them.

We should now do what Rotary does best and make a difference helping overseas and at home.

Last week I asked you to vote in support of moving club funds to be used. This requires a majority of members to vote in favour. Though everyone who has voted has supported the suggestion we need more than 50% of members to vote. We are 4 or 5 short of achieving short this. Please do this ASAP https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScTI7UktzVWq-cykjrpJCT-YhGy_cWJRI53JO5XsWD5keX4PQ/viewform?usp=sf_link

Our IYE to Chile Ciaran Seymour gave us a very interesting and enthusiastic talk about his year in Chile. When he arrived in January it was 35° and very hot in a blazer. Earlier on he met Kalia– who is Italian but spoke Spanish and Victor who was from a small place in the South Island- Temuka Huts. School was very different as he had 15 subjects and found the tests very hard. In June he swapped families with Victor and that was quite easy as they had met the families before. The protests were not scary at first as they were away from the centre of the city but a gunshot 200 m away made it real. When the European IYE students arrived in August he was able to become a tour guide and go on a one-week trip south with them. The last day of school was quite sad as the students were leaving to study for PSU which is their entrance to university exam. Protesters set some schools on fire and that delayed the exams for two months and then another two months. He did a further trip south and found a different culture with great views and saw part of a glacier break off. This involved some trekking and he had to help some people who were not used to it. From the year he had learnt – Spanish, different cultures, about Chile and its people and was now more confident and less shy. He would miss his friends and the culture. The protesters were looking for a completely new form of government. In their culture they treat everyone as family and don't judge people. He attended a Catholic private school and did some work with the local Rotary club with needy kids and providing food for the homeless. Highlight was the Gala Night and the worst time was the three weeks when he was unable to leave the house. He is training at a future tourism school to be a flight attendant and hopes to travel overseas to Chile and to see his best friend in Italy. He thanked the club for their support and the love they had shown.
