IYE Student

Yee Hsien, introduction.

Carol Caulfield. East Timor Update

Apologies to Gary 473 9295 or gary@mtl.co.nz this week.

From Fay Norman. Attached is a photo of parents and babies participating in the Plunket Solid Foods Course that East Coast Bays Rotary supports with funding. Today there were 9 parents, 1 Grandmother and 8 babies in attendance. Karitane Nurse Delwyn provided the parents with helpful ideas for preparing fresh fruit and vegetables, as an alternative to buying pre-made meals. Each family went home with 4 small pottles of cooked food. I assisted with the preparing of the fruit and vegetables and best of all got to lie on the floor with wee babies while their parents watched Delwyn.

Our president will have lots to tell us about next week.

John Shadbolt presented an interesting photographed trip of animals he had met in Botswana. Focusing on the leopard and their behaviour - what they might like to eat, what is too difficult to catch, sitting around in trees – all from the leopard’s point of view.
