Morgan's message

I opened Monday's meeting by asking the question "where were you exactly 2 years ago today?" needless to say this brought forward some interesting responses. I was highlighting the fact that we remember events and places that stand out and have special meaning for us. Often the events we remember were new experiences, for example visiting a new city or landmark for the very first time. So where am I going with all this? Well if we accept that life is enriched by new experiences, by being an active member of the Club, you have the opportunity, through Rotary, for new experiences. You just need to seek them out! As an example have a look at Rotary's Areas of Focus brochure attached to this Bulletin for inspiration.

This year marks 100 years of the Rotary Foundation. This is of course our very own "charity" and as a Club we support the Foundation each and every year. For those of you who are Centurions and Benefactors, you also support the Foundation personally. In recognition of the Foundation's Centennial, there is a world-wide challenge to raise US$300 million. Foundation Trustee Chair Kalyan Banerjee has said "Now is the time to enable our Foundation to serve humanity for centuries to come, by making sure it is financially strong and remains recognised internationally for its good work."

I encourage you to learn more about our own charity, and visit the website below.

Following the theme of "New beginnings" our webmaster (and District's webmaster) Stephen Wheeler told us about our new website. Whilst this is still very much a "work in progress" it is now ready for content to be uploaded. Stephen encouraged us all to seek out high quality photographs of "Rotarians in action" and to send him content for our web page. Have a look at <http://www.rotaryecb.club/>

Well done Stephen!

Charis Boos, originally from the States, came and told us about some Naval History and the new naval museum now at Torpedo Bay since 2010. Torpedo Bay has history all on its own with the [positioning of a minefield across to Bastion Point and before that, an interesting torpedo boat – Waitemata to be launched in case of attack to ram intruders. Never had to use it, The museum is situated in heritage buildings, a shipwright's store and secret room now the ablutions block.

Charis enjoys teaching naval history to the new naval cadets in the new classrooms. As the museum is now 75 years old, there is to be a special exhibition collection of more recent naval items from the collection stores and a borrowed mascot muskrat. To find our more visit the museum. It's free. The coffee and cake café is great and 90,000 other people go there each year (to look at the museum)

Next week’s guest speaker is Monique Knight. Previously Clinical Director of The Tui Centre Ltd, she has been working with clients for over 25 years and is a member of the New Zealand Association of Counsellors. She has served on the NZAC Membership Committee and the Ethics Committee and has served as an ACC counselling applicant panellist. Among other things, Monique gives workshops on how stress affects the brain and how to “Outsmart the stress”.
