26th August 2019

The Rotary Club wishes to extend an invitation for all those interested to attend our club meeting on Wednesday the 11th September at the Royal New Zealand Yacht Club starting at 6:30pm with dinner around 7:00pm.

Dinner can be ordered from the Members Bar from the menu at your own cost., it will be delivered to your table.

The meeting will be held in the Dingy Locker on the ground level best entered from the rear doors.

Other than enjoying our wonderful fellowship in these special surrounds and a chance to see the America's cup first-hand, the oldest trophy in work sport! We have a wonderful guest speaker;

Sir Graham Lowe KNZM QSM. Has agreed to give us his time and we are most grateful to have this great Kiwi attend.

Sir Graham Michael Lowe

KNZM QSM is the owner of the Bradford Bulls together with fellow kiwi counterpart Andrew Chalmers.²¹
He was a New Zealand former rugby league football coach and administrator.
He previously coached in Australia and England and was the CEO of the Manly-Warringah Sea Eagles.
He is also the only non-Australian to coach a State of Origin team.

More than this Graham was honoured for his services to Youth and Education through his charity The Lowie Foundation, which initially partnered with the New Zealand Institute of Sport, and now operates through The Lowie Foundation Ltd and Lowie Institute Ltd to deliver a programme for teenagers struggling with school or looking for a vocational pathway to employment.

We are sure you will find Sir Grahams address inspirational and enlightening, bring the younger ones along.

Please RSVP to Joyti Singh joytisingh@xtra.co.nz

We note that the numbers are limited to 60 so please RSVP early to avoid disappointment. Certainly, no later than 8th August 3:00pm.
