THE NEXT SPEAKER

Lance Walker, CEO WREDA

In 1991 the Dominion Post launched a campaign celebrating innovative business endeavours – Absolutely Positively Wellington.

The campaign didn't just speak to the corporate community, as was the original plan, it was embraced by the people of Wellington. They fell in love with their city all over again. The campaign was so successful that it became the brand adopted by Wellington.

In April 2018 when Lance Walker started as the new CEO of WREDA – the Wellington Regional Economic Development Agency. One of the many questions scribbled in his bulging first week notebook was whether Wellington had lost the spirit of positivity that was the hallmark of that original campaign, and perhaps more importantly why that would be the case? The case for positivity and optimism across the whole region remains incredibly strong.

THURSDAY'S CLUB MEETING

Lionel gave an update on Michael Gorman. He has been in hospital, but is about to return home. Members were asked not to visit him until he has settled down.

Roy and Dawn Ferguson were welcomed back from their MFAT stint in Jakarta.

Recently qualified Lawn Bowls Umpire, Brian Poole, chaired the meeting.

Visitors included Peter and Shiree, Relationship Counsellors from Tauranga, who described themselves as David Dell's Groupies.

GUEST SPEAKER – DAVID DELL

[profiled in the previous issue]

David gave an entertaining presentation, interspersed with music and song in New Zealand music heritage, much of which has been forgotten. However, with some prompting, those present were able to recall some of the songs he presented, many of them associated with the two World Wars.

He also spoke about his work in establishing the NZ Musical Archive and the continued search for sheet music, music books, songs, concert programmes, NZ 78's, LP's, CD's etc.
