EDITORIAL APOLOGY

Because of commitments scheduled for this week, I started on the Bulletin on Friday afternoon, with the intention of finishing it over the weekend. The Gods within me intervened while I was walking along Ballance St. on Friday Evening when, with a few minutes I felt dizzy with chest pains culminating on my collapsing onto the footpath. I shall remain grateful to the two bystanders who initially made me comfortable and called an Ambulance, remaining with me until I was safely on board. The 2-hour operation, mainly to clear a totally blocked artery, was described by the Cardiologist as "difficult". I was eventually discharged on Tuesday evening with instructions to remain at home for a week, with a carer at all times. Hence, as I am not yet in second gear, the balance of this Bulletin will be brief.

NEXT LUNCHEON SPEAKERS

Lizzy Eaves - Lead Educator, Holocaust Centre of NZ

(HCNZ): Lizzy emigrated to Wellington from the UK in March 2018 and has worked at the Holocaust Centre since the end of that year. She has been an educator for over twenty years and has taught a variety of subjects in both paid and voluntary roles: English, Drama, Media Studies, History, and Religious Education. Lizzy is currently Lead Educator at HCNZ, Education Manager for the Anne Frank touring exhibition 'Let Me Be Myself'

Kristopher Clancy - Education Director, Holocaust Centre of NZ

(HCNZ): Kristopher Clancy moved to New Zealand in June 2019 from Houston, Texas. Before moving to New Zealand, Kristopher graduated from the University of Houston and was a teacher for 12 years, having taught European History and Psychology. Kristopher joined the Holocaust Centre of New Zealand in November 2019 as Education Director. Since starting with HCNZ, Kristopher has worked to expand the educational programmes offered at the centre as well as our online presence to help students and teachers with delivering Holocaust education.

MAY 6th LUNCHEON MEETING

MARC TADDEI

Orchestra Wellington, originally established in 1948 as the Alex Lindsay String Orchestra, is New Zealand's oldest professional regional orchestra. It hosts an annual subscription series of concerts in the Michael Fowler Centre, performing varied repertoire from the Classical, Romantic and contemporary periods. The orchestra commissions and performs works by New Zealand composers. It also regularly accompanies Wellington stage performances by the Royal New Zealand Ballet and New Zealand Opera.

Marc Taddei was appointed Music Director of Orchestra Wellington in 2007. With Wellington also the home of NZSO, Marc said that Orchestra Wellington had to establish its own identity within the region. The forced move away from the Wellington Town Hall to the much larger Michael Fowler Centre, which led to a successful marketing strategy to build numbers.

Not only did Marc speak about music, he described his own wedge house near Wanaka, which had featured on Grand Designs.

From there, he commutes to Wellington

NEWS

Kiwi Community Assistance

From Lionel,

We are looking to form a team to do some hands-on work at KCA - sorting clothes.

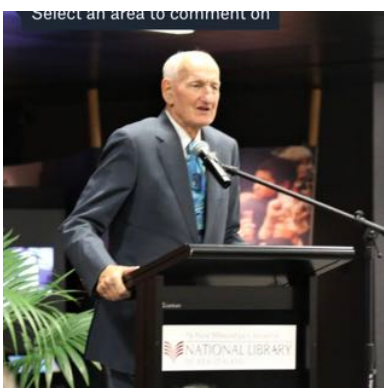

The clothes are bound for Virtuoso Strings, the children's orchestra for kids in Porirua, and have been fully donated to KCA. They were uniforms from some work organisation. It's mainly sorting by size and packing in boxes.

While no date or time has been set yet, we are looking at the week commencing Monday 31 May.

Please send your name to Lionel - lionel.nunns@gmail.com or leave a phone message at 938 0730 (Lionel is away 24 - 30 May) An indication of which day/time suits best would help.

The Launch of Mana Tangata – People of Action, at the National Library was a very successful event. Some random photos follow.
