The Gardens

O – Judy Bagrie & Alan Cone,
2211 Winchester/Hanging Rock Road, RD12,
Pleasant Point.

This house was built in 1903 from Limestone on the property.

When Alan took over the property 35 years ago the house was virtually used as a haybarn. Judy & Alan have restored the house and developed the garden as a year-round beauty.

On display will be Art by Sharon Leonard

★ - Fiona & Wayne Piece, 27 Kabul St,
Pleasant Point

This is a new garden surrounding a 1911 two storey character home. Lots of trees, shrubs & bulbs. As with most gardens a work in progress.

On display will be exquisite Fair Isle Knitting & Art by Tracy Austin.

Plant Sales Table at this garden.

Housekeeping

Please ensure that sensible shoes are worn. Please do not embarrass the garden owners by asking to use their toilets. Public Toilets are available opposite the shops in Pleasant Point and there will be a port-a-loo at Jo and Barry Taylor's Garden.

- Jo and Barry Taylor,
447 Falvey Road

This garden has not been open to the public before.

Jo & Barry have lived on this property for 20 years & the garden has been continuously changing during this time.

On display will be Art by Anne Gregerson & Embroidery by the Aoraki Embroiders Guild

You can go for a ride in a Classic Car to Pleasant Point & back for $10

X – Melva Drummond, 21 Khan St, Pleasant Point

This is a delightful all year-round garden that has & continues to be redeveloping over the past 11 years.

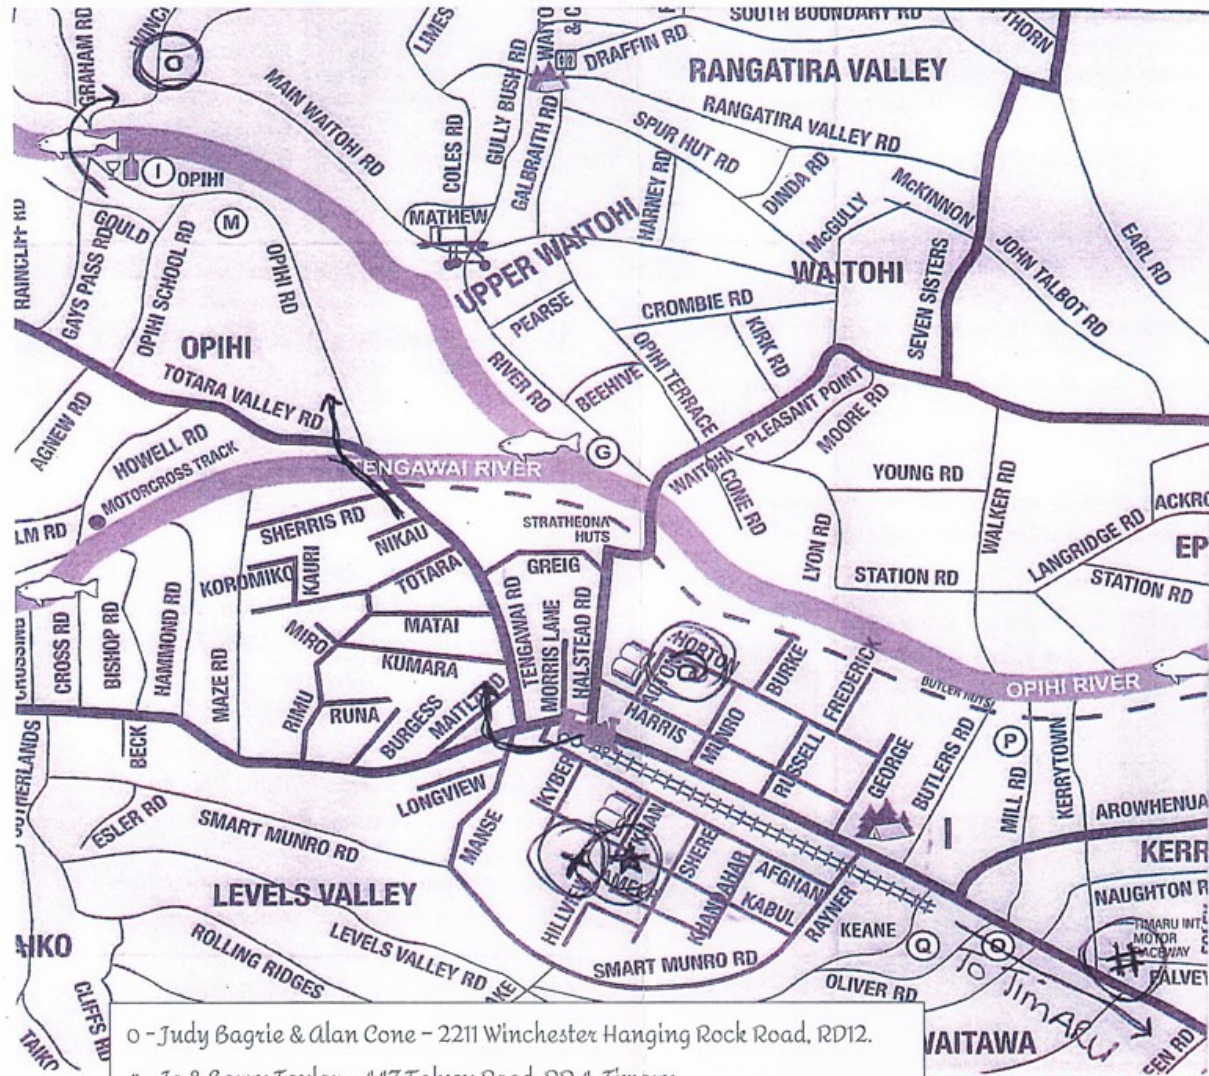

On display will be Topiary by Linda Allan & there will be demonstrations of Hanging baskets by Ngaire Orford ~ 11am-11.30am & 1.30pm-2pm

@ - Gwenyth & Bernie Wilson, 2 Horton St, Pleasant Point

This charming garden never cease to delight. Both Gwenyth & Bernie spend many hours enjoying the pleasure of working in the garden. Always colour & plants to delight everyone.

On display will be Art by Nina Devereux & there will be demonstrations of Floral Art by Jan Chambers ~ 10.15am-11am & 2.15pm-3pm

There will be refreshments, kindly provided by Altrusa Timaru, and entertainment at The Taylor Garden.
