Private Lives

Directed by Don McCully

Elyot and his second wife, Sibyl, are honeymooning on the French Riviera when he discovers that his first wife, Amanda and her second husband, Victor, have the hotel room next to theirs. Uh oh! Cue general chaos and mayhem. How simply ripping!

Private Lives is one of Noël Coward's most popular plays, known for its wit, flamboyance, and what Time magazine has called its "sense of personal style, a combination of cheek and chic, pose and poise."
