

The Thaplung Women, Children's and Community Health Project, Nepal (2024) - Week Three.

Homeward Bound.

How awesome! The bag of soaps that we brought for the Thaplung village is already being distributed by Nurse Trisana. Hand hygiene is such an easy way to improve the health outcomes for people, a simple soap bar could save a life!

For our last day in Nepal, we went for a trip up to Chandragiri Hill on cable cars to see the Hyimilas. Unfortunately, we couldn't see them but there were still some great views!
We said our final goodbye to Padam at the hotel and tried to get packed!
We all found that a little hard!
We had a stopover in Singapore.
