

He was reappointed to the Board in September last year which should help ensure the financial stability of IHC in a climate that is seeing other disability providers struggling after Covid-19.

Tony was on the National IHC Board from 1998 to 2005 and became an IHC New Zealand Life Member in 2005.

Tony was invited to join the IHC South Canterbury Branch committee 40 years ago. He has broad experience in community and volunteer organisations including The Timaru Rotary club.

He was MC for a good number of Charity Auctions held by the Timaru Rotary club in the early 2000's.

His first contact with Rotary was as a Group Study Exchange team member, put forward by this club to the selection process in Dunedin, he was successful and went on that Group Study Exchange team that went from this South Island District 9980 to D7150 in Upper New York State in 1989.
