NEWS ABOUT OUR CLUB, ROTARY GENERALLY & OUR WORLD

Twenty-four Rotarians and Partners enjoyed a balmy sundowner at Jackadder Lake last Wednesday evening. The weather was warm, as was the social interaction, and even screeching white cockatoos perching in the tree above couldn't dampen the spirits of those attending. Best not to look up though! Fish and chips from across the road was popular with many. A very pleasant, relaxing evening enjoyed by all.

The best way to make contact with fish is to drop them a line!
