April 6, 2018

April - Maternal and Child Health Month

Rotarian of the Week: Barry Kimbrough

Born in Muncie, Indiana, Barry grew up in the adjacent small town of Yorktown. He lettered in football, wrestling, track and (yes) cheerleading. He was Junior Class Business Manager and Senior Class President and earned the rank of Eagle Scout. He attended Purdue University on a Navy ROTC Marine Option scholarship and was commissioned in 1987.

His duty locations included Okinawa, Norfolk, Camp Lejeune, and 29 Palms. He left active duty in 1998 and settled in Virginia Beach. He joined the Marine Reserve and Rotary in 1999. Duty locations included Virginia Beach, Norfolk and Suffolk. He worked locally for Farm Fresh Construction and Independence Construction, before returning to active duty in 2004. He served in Iraq in late 2005/early 2006 and Afghanistan in 2009-2010. He was promoted to Colonel in 2011 and retired on active duty in September 2012 after 25 years of service. He returned to Independence Construction and served as the Senior Project Manager until 2014.

He is currently Facilities and CES Manager for Camber Corporation. He and Lisa live in the Larchmont section of Norfolk. Look for the (RCHR provided) Marine Corps Flag!

Operation Homefront is doing another Star-Spangled Baby Shower Event to support critically needed items for local military moms. Please bring in donations before the April 12th deadline. Ryan Reyes will be collecting the items. Items needed: Diapers, bottles, gift cards, etc.

Quote of the Week:

"the individual who says it is not possible should move out of the way of those doing it." - Tricia Cunningham
