February—Peacebuilding and Conflict Prevention Month

ROTW: Jim Jones

Jim Jones is a native of Hot Springs, Arkansas. He attended Little Rock HS and went on to earn an Associate Degree in Pre-Law at Little Rock University. He ultimately earned a bachelor's degree in government and international relations at the Naval Postgraduate School. Jim comes from an interesting family. His father was a lawyer and an Arkansas State Supreme Court Justice. His mother was a teacher. Jim entered the Navy in 1958 as an electronics tech. He became qualified for nuclear submarine duty.

Jim went on to become commissioned in the Navy after attending Officers Candidate School. He served on frigates, destroyers and nuclear cruisers in the fields of electronics, operations and anti-submarine warfare. Jim's tour of duty took him to Iran and Malaysia. Jim was commanding officer of the Naval Sea Combat Systems engineering Station, Norfolk. After his career in the Navy, Jim took up real estate and now works for Long and Foster. Jim is married to Penny and they have two children.

He enjoys public speaking and fishing.

Jim is a past president (2002-2003), a Rotary Benefactor, a Paul Harris Fellow+6 and has 22 years perfect attendance.

The Four Way Test: Is it the truth?
Is it fair to all concerned?
Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
