Happy New Year

Dorothy Grimm, former long term Alice Springs resident, and Honorary member of the Rotary Club of Alice Springs, joined the club for dinner on Monday evening.

President Warren invited Dorothy to share some of the activities of the Alice Springs Club

- Henley on Todd, the boat race in the dry Todd River
- The John Hawkins Memorial Scholarship in memory of one of the first doctors in Alice Springs

Dorothy worked for the local newspaper, The Centralian Advocate, and promoted many of the Rotary Club's activities, which led to the club making her a Paul Harris Fellow.

Dorothy also assisted local Rotarian George Brown with the writing of the history of the Alice Springs Rotary Club which was published for their 40th anniversary in 2001.

Dorothy and her husband Jack retired to Honolulu in 2018. They are touring Australian visiting friends for the next six weeks.
