BBQ & NSW Masters' Road Race

"the best in the State," and Alison kindly thought to provide a bowl of lolly pops for passing children.

Warren did seem to get invested in monitoring repeat lolly pop customers towards the end of the morning shift.

The morning crew also lent a hand to the St. John's Ambulance in their marquee raising—they Despite revealing some seriously navigationally-challenged Rotarians (Alison and Warren), the BBQ at the NSW Masters Road Race on Saturday 21st September went well.

Some minor complaints about the set up leading to eggs running across the BBQ plate were aired (to be fair it was a sloping site). The pace of demand was moderate enough to allow for cooking to order before the lunchtime rush. We toasted bread, provided hard eggs, runny eggs, crispy bacon, non crispy bacon and all combinations thereof. Steve was very happy with the high quality pork sausages were very handily located directly behind us. Thankfully there was no need to call on their services. We also kept on top of race events thanks to the announcer also being in the neighbouring tent.

As the cyclists were powering through 4 or 5 circuits totalling up to 84 or 105 kms, I enjoyed breaks in my outdoor chair in the shade of the trees.

Weekend at Urunga, 15-17 November

The club has paid the deposit for accommodation at Urunga. Could participating members please reimburse the club for $125 of this deposit. Remaining accommodation charges will be paid directly to the Park. Shayne Long will contact all the members planning to attend, to confirm their style of accommodation and charge. Some shuffling was necessary and Warren made an offer to Shane Della “if he wasn’t a snorer...”

Steve & Rob are organising the catering, except for the dinner out at the pub or club on Saturday night.

Any members not able to stay for the weekend are welcome to drive down and join in the Saturday night dinner. Despite it being Rally weekend, no-one is expecting difficulties in finding a spot for dinner on Saturday evening. Details will be distributed closer to the weekend.

Rob Alford will be testing out his new van at Urunga and at one stage Phil was pleased that he was only paying the $125 to cover his planned seven day stay...

Iluka-Woombah Rotary Club

Rob Alford proposed a toast to the Iluka Rotary Club. Although small in numbers, this club runs the local monthly market on the first Sunday of the month. Best wishes to President Eric Causley and his hard working team. The past president seems to share at least the same surname—Shirley Causley. (Pictured to the right)

Club News

- Peter Paff's offer to step up as President in 2020/21 was greeted enthusiastically.
- Alan estimates the Club made $750 from the Downton Abbey Movie night
