Pres-Deb: Welcome to our meeting tonight
I will put you into chat-rooms to discuss tonight's topic 'What sport would you compete in if you were in the Olympics?' See you back in about 15-minutes.

Pres- Deb: Welcome back from the chat room, I hope you had fun discussing the Olympics.

Right now, I want to present the following to you an opportunity that arose from our last guest speaker's Stan Galanski and

The Solution Becomes a Reality

Deborah Davis-Brinen presentation on Human Trafficking and a project they are working on at this time. They are looking for support to qualify their project for a Global Grant.

With the Houston Area Women's Center (HAWC) pending move ... from their present campus operation into a (to be built) 135 Unit, more complete complex, on adjacent land ... their vacated building(s) can be reconfigured to support a Human (Sex) Trafficking SAC. (See attached illustration)

'The board endorses and will seek approval from the Club to repurpose existing funds in the current budget from PET and RYLA, and assign them for financial support for the Global Grant application, of the Rotary Club of Huston Space Centre, to develop a template for use in combating Human Sex Trafficking.

Individuals may contribute, if they choose, and the Club will match to an amount not to exceeded by $1,000. in Club funds.'

Discussion: Where will we send our cheques?

They need to be sent to Lindagene Coyle and Terry Geer.

We need to have our funds in by the end of February to Rotary Club of Huston Space Centre.

P-Deb: I will be sending out a document with all the information within the next couple of days.

Thank you to the Club for your support on this project, it will also help our Club be recognized within the Global Grant process.

Pati: It is my pleasure to introduce Reverend Jim Short to speak to us about his life of Service in theological field.

Please see the presentation on our Club's Homepage.

P-Deb: Thank Rev Short for presenting us with this interesting story. In particular with your role within the military.

Trudy: The Dogoodery Projects are going very well. They will be kept up until the end of February. I have some more dogoodery projects lined up for the Club. I will be sending them out over the next few weeks. Thank you for your support.

P-Deb: We will be inducting our newest member Zeke Melquist. Yvonne a member who left the Club due to her heavy schedule will be re-joining the Club in the near future.

Patricia: Please watch your ClubRunner Homepage for an upcoming exciting event.
