Pres-Deb: Welcome everyone to our meeting tonight our guest speakers are going to be speaking about a very serious topic 'Human Trafficking'. First though we will go off to the chat-rooms to discuss tonight's topic 'What is your least favourite food as a child and do you still dislike it?' See you back in about 15-minutes.

Pres- Deb: Welcome to my guest tonight a long-time friend Jill Himlie. Welcome to our guest speaker tonight Deborah Davis-Brinen. Stan will be joining us later.

Deborah: Thank you for having me tonight to speak about a topic that is so very important to us all 'Human Trafficking'.

Please see the presentation on our Club's Homepage.

Questions arising from the presentation:

Julie: What can our Club do to support this project?

Stan: You can help support the 2nd phase of this project, which is being written up now and due at the end of February it is the renovation of the space being turned over to the project.

P-Deb: The Club's executive will discuss how we will move forward in supporting this project at our Executive meeting on February 3, 2022.

Patricia: We need the Club to know we are spending funds that are being spend on putting together a template that can be used around the world for this extremely harmful activity – human trafficking.

Ken: He can see the template being used in the Northwest area – Seattle, Vancouver, BC.

P-Deb: The Executive will be discussing the amount of $1,000 to this project. Each club member can give separately towards this project.

Trudy: The Dogoodery Projects are going very well. They will be kept up until the end of Feburary. As Service Chair she would make a decision after that as to whether or not the project will continue.

P-Deb: Please contact Allen Stockbridge, or Julie Johansen, or Char Hart regarding upcoming Green Bag pickup.

P-Deb: Good night – keep safe
