P Brian	Financial
PE Napa	Community Service Projects
PN Peter	Fundraising/Golf Tournament
Exec Sec Martin	Public Image

Rtn Benjamas thanked P Brian for the opportunity to talk to the members and guests about the Rotaract projects that have been completed this year.

Rtn Benjamas introduced the board of directors of the boards of both Rotoract clubs (Webster University and Stamford International University) by powerpoint and explained the projects they have been involved in this year.

Rtn Benjamas then showed pictures from the visit to two police schools over the weekend of 11th and 12th May and stated that the visit and seeing the joy on the childrens faces was heartwarming for the members who attended.

Rtn Benjamas apologised to the Board regarding the conflict of dates between this event and the District Training event in Trang but a number of factors influenced this. Rtn Benjamas thanked the members who attended and informed the meeting that a total of 7 schools would be visited and she hoped more people could attend them.

Rtn Benjamas informed the members and guests of that the Stamford International University Rotaractors will be holding their International Charity Night 2019, which is co-organised by themselves, the Rotary Club of Royal Hua Hin, Hua Hin Market Village and Stamford International University on Thursday 23rd May at Hua Hin Market Village starting from 5:30pm with the purpose of raising funds for the Rotaract Club of SIU, enabling them to complete their University Social Responsibility activities and raise money for the next year.

Rotarian Benjaamas then showed a video made of the two days which was very well received by the members and guests.

P Brian thanked Benjamas on the excellent work the rotaractors are undertaking.

PE Napa informed the members and guests that the following were ongoing projects and briefly described them with the aid of Rtn Gitte Iversen:

- Rotary Education Center Nongkhon School
- Thai Voices Panyanukul School
- Eye Camp
- Reusable shopping bags.

P Brian thanked PE Napa for her dedication and commitment in chairing the project team over the last 2 years.

P Brain then called on PN Peter Iversen so update the members and guests on the golf tournament.

PN Peter informed the members and guests that Rtn Alan Brown was the chair of the fund raising committee, however; he was currently out of the country so he would provide the information.

PN Peter stated that last years golf tournament raised 1,1 million THB and was the biggest fund raiser for the club. The process for planning this years tournament had already started and the committee consisting of nine members had already held two meetings. It is planned to have all the preparation work ready to send out to members, sponsors and golfers by the end of May 2019.

PN Peter also informed the members and guests that plans to split the golf and the evening meal would not go ahead and efforts would be made to increase the the numbers for the evening meal so that members could attend the evening meal as this was the 10th anniversary of the tournament.

PN Peter and Rtn Michel addressed the meeting the importance of attracting more sponsors and asked that each club member should consider trying to attract one new sponsor.

P Brian thanked PN Peter for his update.

P Brian then called on Ex Sec Martin to update the members on Public Image.

Ex Sec Martin stressed the importance of good public image for the club and stated that we can take this as high as we want. Martin explained that he would cover the following topics:

- Club Runner – new additions and updates including project and members stories
- Facebook – Gitte was now updating this and ensure members clicked like. Linked to stories, bullitins and other current news.
- Press Releases – currently RCRHH was getting very good press coverage in the main stream English news outlets, Benjamas was working with the Thai news
- Photos- Currently we now have thousands of photos being taken by Benjamas colleague and Stamford, Patrick Franssen and Phil Lawrence. These are being stored on CR nd used in stories.

P Brian thanked Martin for his presentation

There being no other business lunch was called.
