

Club Meeting 13 February

Ping Pong-a-Thon and the War on Slavery

“Whoever saves one life saves the world entire” is a quote from the Talmud, a holy book in the Jewish faith, which Matt Maudlin used to underscore his presentation on Ping Pong-a-Thon at our Club meeting last Thursday.

Matt is well known to our Club through his work as a former CEO at Servants Community Housing and which RCNB previously acknowledged through a PHF recognition.

Ping Pong-a-Thon, abbreviated to Pong, is a fundraising and advocacy movement, combating human trafficking and exploitation of young people in South East Asia through a series of table tennis events held every year.

Matt used his presentation to bring the Pong program to the notice of our Club. He was well received.

Schools, universities, churches, and community groups host table tennis events and funds raised through participation and sponsorship to support the work of several organisations in south east Asia which are seeking to combat the slavery of some of the world's most vulnerable young people.

Matt pointed out the Global Slavery Index identifies 45.8 million people are in modern slavery through forced labour; forced sexual exploitation and forced marriage.

The Pong program focuses on i) education – to prevent young people becoming trafficked; ii) aftercare – supporting individuals through housing, medical services, training and education; and iii) legal – seeking to bring systematic change to legal systems to bring meaningful change.

Ping Pong-a-Thon has already raised more than $2,300,000 but needs more to expand and develop its program.

Matt said, “We Pong because we believe that every person matters and because every person deserves to live a life that is free”.

President Pete's report .

Dear Members,

We are saddened by loss of member Anthony Stokes following a short illness.

Our sympathies are extended to Anthony's wife Barbara and family.

Anthony has been an active contributor to our Club and District over many years for which he has never sought recognition or reward. Anthony's official record in Rotary doesn't acknowledge the support he has quietly provided to our International Programs and Local Fundraising sponsorship. You will see Stokes and Bell as contributors to many Golf Day and other events in the past for which we are forever grateful. Anthony rarely missed a Club meeting and will be remembered for his warm smile, gentle manner and generosity of time for all manner of tasks.

Anthony was a member of our Club for 31 years and the Rotary Club of Galston (Sydney) for 2 years. Anthony (Classification Customs Broking) was introduced to our Club by Ian Collins; he was Grapevine Editor for the '96/'97 year, received the President's award in 1997, and was Club Secretary in '04/'05 and '05/'06, received the Paul Harris recognition in 2012, and has been on the District RYPEN committee for many years, recently as Treasurer.

RIP Anthony

Bowls Night – Feb 27th No Meeting at Kew Golf Club

Come and have fun at North Balwyn Bowls Club. Bring your friends and partners too.

It's a regular Club Meeting and for catering purposes, contact, Ian Mollison will be taking apologies for this meeting. <mailto:ian.balwynnorth@helloworld.com.au>

The food will be great, the drinks are cheap, the service is friendly and the bowling will be fun fun fun!

Bowls are supplied; flat sole shoes essential or bare feet!

Have a great week in Rotary President Pete

We also had a report from Ned Lindermayer (Head Prefect at Trinity College) who we sponsored to the Lord Somers Camp.

We had 3 students, Daniel Spillane, Alexander Williams and Jasminka Miltiadou from St Bridget's North Balwyn Primary School who were the winners in the Essay Competition.

(The topic was; "If you could change one thing in the world, what would you change and why? Think of a major worldwide problem: for example, hunger or global warming. Write an essay about it.")

Each student read their essay and was presented with their book prize. Each book has a bookplate inside the front cover recording the occasion.

Around the Club this week:-

Our Club provided a BBQ at "Music in the Park" which was Opera in Canterbury park.

Two of District 9800 Rotaract Clubs (Gateway and Melbourne E-Club) combined to organise a Trivia Night. It was very well organised and was run well. Over 100 people attended with Raffle draws (huge number of items) and a silent auction. The event was well supported by sponsoring companies. In all over $3,000 was raised and this was combined with proceeds from a Bunnings BBQ resulted in over $4,000 for Bushfire relief.

Our Rotaractors (the Rotabors) came equal third but relegated to fourth in a tie breaker run off. Well done to the Rotaractors.

Geoff's Health Tips:-

St Valentine's Day has come and gone for another year, but how did it begin?

St Valentine's Day is supposed to be a time to celebrate romance and love but the origins of this festival of chocolate and cupids are actually dark, bloody — and a bit muddled. Though no one has pinpointed the exact origin of the holiday, one good place to start is ancient Rome.

As the story goes, the Romans celebrated the feast of Lupercalia. The men sacrificed a goat and a dog, then whipped women with the hides of the animals they had just slain. Young women would actually line up for the men to hit them. They believed this would make them fertile.

The Roman romantics "were drunk and they were naked," says Noel Lenski, a historian at the University of Colorado at Boulder. Lenski adds, "It was a little more of a drunken revel, but the Christians put clothes back on. That didn't stop it from being a day of fertility and love."

Later, Pope Gelasius I muddled things in the 5th century by combining St Valentine's Day with Lupercalia to expel the pagan rituals.

As the years went on, the holiday grew sweeter and sexier. Chocolates, oysters, bananas, avocados, pistachios, chai tea and red wine were at the top of the list - aphrodisiacs? Well some might think they are but the science says these foods increase blood flow, and that is the heart of the matter.

All of these foods have something (a chemical) in them that will change blood flow and blood flow starts to move where love happens.

- ⇒ Chocolates contain a stimulant related to amphetamine, which is released when people fall in love
- ⇒ Oysters contain a large amount of amino acids that build a lot of hormones
- ⇒ Bananas contain bromelain that is shown to be associated with testosterone
- ⇒ Pistachios are on the list because they contain protein and flavonoids to stimulate blood flow and who is to say that Chai Tea and a little Red Wine aren't going to help?

Geoff

Pat Taylor's (wife of past member Ian Taylor) memorial will be held on Sunday 23 February at 2pm at her son's home, Graham and Lee Taylor. The address is 18 Kaisman Square, Wantirna. All very welcome. If there is anyone else at the Club that would want to know, please share these details with them.

The Blue Line

Over the past couple of months I have noticed an increase in our high volume crime and predominantly Theft from Motor Vehicle.

Analyses indicates there are no specific patterns or time frames so although we target our patrols we can only do so much. Investigation of such crimes relies heavily on forensic evidence such as DNA or fingerprints.

On a deeper review it becomes apparent that a significant portion of these offences are opportunistic and have resulted from villains looking into vehicles and sighting your valuable items which they then steal. How can you help I hear you asking and the answer is simple – please don't leave valuables in your cars. To often I see reports of a laptop or wallet left in clear view and the vehicle is then broken into. Even an empty bag on the back seat will attract unwarranted attention as you may know it's empty but the person walking past doesn't. Remind friends, relatives and neighbours of this fact and help us in helping you.

Thank you all and stay safe.
