WENDY'S WISDOM

There are some weeks in our lives when a special event unfolds and we can but think of the fact that by reaching across the world we can make changes, one step at a time.

This is one of those times. Tonight the story of Ayan was on the news for all the world to see. That story will give others hope and a belief that positive changes can happen. One of my young staff has just sent a text saying 'how special it is that this young lady will be gifted the chance to feel happy and comfortable in her own body – as everyone should'. How true.

What they can't see from the story is what so many of you did to make this happen.

To the team who've been so closely involved please accept the thanks of all. You've shown commitment and belief, you've demonstrated energy and compassion and you've lived the ideals, not just of Rotary but also of humanity. Through your actions you've lived the aspiration of 'human rights'. Many of us will join in functions next week to support Edna and Ayan – and while we're doing that we'll be quietly saying thank you to your team. I know that John regularly says that we are to refer to the team and not one particular member so we'll do that. But please – know that your colleagues and friends know each and every one of you and that, while we might have played a small supporting role, we know and value the immensity of what you've done.

On behalf of each and every one of us – thank you.
