Kym's Catch Up

There is no meeting this week due to many members working at the Art Show. Stay tuned for more news next week 😊 but in the meantime please let your friends and family know the show is open until Friday.

The number of people leaning in to bring the Art Show to life has led me to reflect on our Rotary year and the tireless efforts of our members.

Big projects such as Mamba, Vascolynna, Maheno, and events for The School of St Jude's and the Art Show, happen as a result of vision, passion and a great team.

There are also a lot of other projects that quietly make a difference – magazine distributions to Villa Maria and Bric Housing, helping out at Albert Park Flexible Learning Centre, making Tiina's YEP year in Australia memorable and arranging Youth Exchanges for young adults, mentoring Rotaracters, presenting at RYLA, participating in fundraising events such as Walk for Awareness and Hamlin High Tea...the list goes on and on.

We can all be proud of the difference we make in the community through Rotary and also by being the inspiration in our daily lives.

Last Week's Meeting

John Arvier gave us a presentation of the many charity projects he has been involved with overseas and here in Australia, some of which involved the support of High Rise members. It was an amazing catalogue of work that brought back fond memories for many of the members and made us realise what a huge impact the Club has had over the years.

Rotary Art Show is launched

Many of BHR members volunteered on Saturday to set up the 40th Rotary Art Show. Stay tuned for opening night photos in the next edition. Make sure you drop into Central Plaza (cnr of Creek and Queen St) to see the amazing art. Below is a sample of the great works available.

Tiina's Update

It was great having two of my host Dad's attend the special award ceremony at my school. Mother's Day has been different this year with me having 4 Host Mums + a Counsellor, who is like a Host Mum and my Mum back in Finland. Mother's Day will never be the same again. I enjoyed helping out at the art show with Zanthia and am very excited to be starting my trip to Central Australia with the other Exchange students. I hope to have some amazing photos of Uluru to share with you next week. We left on Sunday morning and I am returning the following Saturday, just in time to pack up the Art Show. My main concern is that I don't freeze in the desert night.
