Kym's Catch Up

It's been a week of successes for High-Risers. Our members who walked in the International Women's Day Mater Fun Run raised a fabulous $910 to support women fighting breast cancer. Vascolynna's operation was successful and she is healing well. Planning is full steam ahead for the Strategy Day next Saturday and we have hung out the "full" sign for Breakfast with Gemma on the 17th Match – that means 200 people are attending. Not to mention our club is hosting the 9600 District Conference in March. What a list!

Its been a fabulous effort from so many members and their families to make sure all our projects are successful. Some have taken years and others not so long, but all have needed someone to have an idea, and a tribe of High-Risers to help to make it happen.

As well look to planning our projects for next year, we can take some lessons from a job well done so far 😊

A great Rotary success story

Dr John Arvier reported on Saturday... Operation just finished. All went very well. We even managed to release the fusion via intra-oral access, so no skin incisions required. Mouth now opening nicely. Full credit to principal surgeon Dr Geoff Findlay and anaesthetist Dr Kiron Chakrabarti.

Dr Arvier, Vascolynna's father Duane Agamo and Dr Takovi Maga Oral Surgeon from PNG who assisted with Vascolynna's surgery

While surgery was in progress member Lindsay Marshall and Duane visited some of Brisbane's iconic sites then presented the Wesley Hospital staff involved with a certificate that reads "A few treats to say thanks to Wesley Hospital Staff for your gracious care of Vascolynna Aagamo from PNG

A very brave Vascolynna the day after surgery with a smile for her support team.

DR Maga had to return to PNG Sunday morning for the imminent birth of his new baby.

Congratulations to the Rotary High-Rise Team raising funds for Rotary Projects by completing the International Women's Day Mater Fun Run. At last count they were a little short of their target so please DONATE NOW to get them over the line. Go to the website www.womensfunrun.com.au Mater Womens Fun Run and click Donate. Barb's Joke Corner

Three dogs met on a street corner. The first was a beautiful black poodle with a big blue ribbon around its neck, and it said, "My name is Fifi, spelled F-I-F-I."

The second was a pretty white poodle with a red satin ribbon around its neck, and it said, "My name is Mimi, spelled M-I-M-I."

The third was a dirty old mutt who said, "My name is Fido, spelled P-H-Y-D-E-A-U-X."
