Kym's Catch Up

It's RYLA week! High-Rise is actively supporting the week long leadership camp again this year, through sponsorships of Laura, James (leaders) and Bill (participant). Our members are also participating as presenters.

24 Rylarians arrived at Luther Heights Youth Camp on Saturday and have hit the ground running. I am sure all of them will have a extraordinary experience – RYLA is a flagship Rotary program for young people that always exceeds expectations.

Check out all the news on the RYLA Facebook page:

A bit closer to Brisbane, the Art Show is only a week away. Many people have worked tirelessly to stage the event – sponsorships, promotions, logistics and opening night arrangements. Thank you!

Please like and share social media posts and come along to the show – early snippets are revealing some amazing art. It's easy to support such a great show. Bring your friends ☺

Last Week's Meeting

We had a very information presentation from Gary Mortimer from QUT about the future of retail. Pictured is Gary with our Chair for the day, John Kerr. Gary's presentation outlined how technology will be used to offer us a more personalized service, such as navigating supermarkets so we find all of our usual products and notifying us of special personalized discounts, no doubt to encourage us to spend even more!!

Community Service

BHR joined forces with the Toowong Club to provide support to the Albert Park Flexible Learning Centre, see photos below. Simon, the head of school (seen at the right of the photo below), is also working with both Clubs to develop a longer term plan to support the Learning Centre. He advised that as well as regular gardening and ground maintenance, the school needs progressive painting of all the classrooms over the next few years. The painting will need to occur ideally in the school holidays and not in the heat of summer. The school also needs some carpentry and replacement of the kitchen stove dishwasher and mower that we can maybe approach Bunnings or a mower company or fundraise for.

BHR enjoys Marriott's 21st

The Marriott's Paint the Town Red celebrated 21 years in Brisbane and the Hotel's refurbishment being completed. Champers flowed all night and note the Oyster bar Yum!! Someone had to represent Rotary and Rosemary, Lindsay and Kym did us proud, catching up with key staff and Donelle (a great BHR friend).

Tiina's Update

Last weekend I went to Sydney and climbed the Harbour Bridge, walked around the Rocks, did a tour of the Opera House, caught a ferry to Manly and had lunch at Bondi. I also managed to fit in a bit of shopping at the QVB, Strand Arcade, David Jones and Darling Harbour. Great photos and memories.
