

Literacy Corner, continued.

There is also Digital Literacy which is closely related to Information Literacy. The American Library Association counts this important enough to have formed a Task Force on Digital Literacy. Their definition of this kind of Literacy is "the ability to use information and communication technologies to find, evaluate, create, and communicate information, requiring both cognitive and technical skills."

There are many possibilities for Club Literacy Projects ranging from reading to school classes, to sponsoring computer classes at your local library, to providing dictionaries for school children, and many others. Your local library can suggest other opportunities. Discuss some possibilities for 2017 Projects at a future Club meeting.

This has been a busy Rotary Year and as it comes to an end, I send "Best Wishes for the Holiday Season" to all of you! "

-Marge McPeak
D5580 Literacy Chair
mcpeak@northlc.com