“We should not live for ourselves alone,
but for the joy in doing good for others.”
— Arch Klumph

DOING GOOD IN THE WORLD

Every donor to The Rotary Foundation is making a difference. Donors to the Foundation give for many reasons, but they share a common purpose — to do good in the world.

Arch Klumph Society members exemplify this mission and are leaders in philanthropy. They believe in the work of the Foundation and have made the support of causes such as eradicating polio, promoting peace, and protecting the environment part of their personal missions.

THE ARCH KLUMPH SOCIETY

Named after the sixth president of Rotary, the Arch Klumph Society recognizes the Foundation’s most significant donors — those who have personally contributed US$250,000 or more.

The society is an international network of philanthropists who are strong advocates for Rotary’s collective impact. Through the generosity of its supporters, the Foundation is able to continue its work toward a more caring and just world. The generosity of donors sustains Rotary’s work today, tomorrow, and far into the future.

Becoming a member

Membership in the Arch Klumph Society is lifelong and granted to donors who reach cumulative outright contributions of $250,000 or more to The Rotary Foundation. Donations can be made through cash, securities, real estate, and life income agreements. Contributions to a donor advised fund, however, do not qualify for Arch Klumph Society membership.

HISTORY OF THE ARCH KLUMPH SOCIETY

Arch Klumph, a member of the Rotary Club of Cleveland, Ohio, USA, served as Rotary's president in 1916-17.

Addressing the 1917 convention in Atlanta, Georgia, USA, he promoted the idea of "endowments for the purpose of doing good in the world." That year, the first gift of $26.50 was made — the beginning of what would become The Rotary Foundation. Klumph was selected as one of the first trustees.

To honor Klumph's vision and foresight, the Arch Klumph Society was created in 2004 during Rotary International's 2004-05 centennial celebration. Then and now, the society provides a meaningful way to recognize the Foundation's most dedicated donors.
