

THE DISTRICT

A Weekly Update from Governor Brenda Walker

June 10, 2013

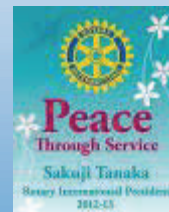

Governor's Message

Fellow Rotarians

Looks like it's count down to the end of our Rotary year! Several of our District Rotarians will meet in Lisbon, Portugal June 23-26 to celebrate the successes of Rotary clubs throughout the world. Thank you for making our District shine this year and for strengthening our communities with Rotarian support.

Peace Through Service,

Brenda

Happy 100th Palestine!

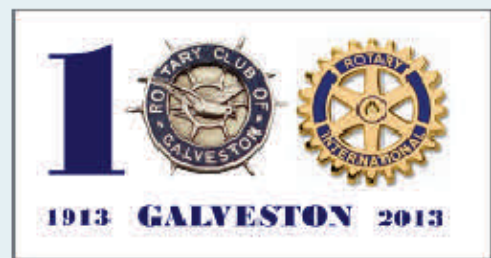

8th Rotary club in Texas 06-03-1913

xxx Rotarians and guests enjoyed a centennial celebration at Bella Sera in Palestine. Historian Jack Selden shared interesting facts about the club's activities over the century. President Mike Thomason welcomed everyone. Past Presidents were recognized as well as other honored guests. Special thanks to Past President Rhonda Herrington for coordinating the event! Everything was beautiful!

Congratulations on a job well done!!!!!! Thank you for supporting our Rotary Foundation!

WHY WE GIVE

East Montgomery Cty.

The Rotary Club of East Montgomery County honored veterans for its Memorial Day program. The ceremony was held in the club's Veteran Memorial Park where markers from all branches of the Armed Forces are installed. Memorial pavers surround the markers. James Brooks who served in Desert Storm was the speaker. The park was completed in 2010.

Palestine Scholarship Recipient

President-Elect Carson Wages congratulates Nathan Edwards at his Slocum High School graduation. Nathan was one of ten students from area high schools who received a $1,000 scholarship award.

Rotary Aid—Oklahoma

Please consider giving to our neighbors across the Red River. All donations are tax deductible through this 501(c)3 Foundation.
